Mr. James Brown
Laurel Hill N.C.

Dear James:

I am not sure this letter will reach you, but I hope it will. I decided to write you, and find out if you had changed your mind, and wanted to play ball with The Eagles again this year.

We are going to camp the first of April, and would like you to go along. If you are interested, I will look to hear from you right away, so I will know whether or not to include you in my plans. I wish you would write me one way or the other, because if I do not hear from you I will think you did not receive this letter.

I will expect to hear from you right away, as the time is very short now.

Very Truly Yours
